

ADAA Announces ADAA Fair at the Park Avenue Armory, November 2026

ADAA Announces Dates for ADAA Fair at the Park Avenue Armory, November 2026

New York, NY – December 2, 2025 – ADAA (Art Dealers Association of America) announces the launch of ADAA Fair, to be held at the Park Avenue Armory from Thursday, November 12 through Monday, November 16, 2026.

Building on ADAA's longstanding presence at the Armory, this new fair reflects the organization's renewed focus on supporting the arts and strengthening the cultural landscape nationwide.

For many years, ADAA organized The Art Show at the Park Avenue Armory, with proceeds supporting Henry Street Settlement. With the partnership now concluded, ADAA is advancing a mission-aligned direction centered on championing the visual arts and the institutions that sustain them.

"Our new fair provides an opportunity to highlight the extraordinary work of our member galleries while deepening our support for museums and cultural organizations nationwide," said Mary Ryan, ADAA Fair Committee Chair.

The ADAA Fair will also serve as a platform to further highlight the important work of the ADAA Foundation, which has supported museums and arts nonprofits nationwide through grants for more than fifty years. This year's grantees include: The DuSable Black History Museum and Education Center, Inner-City Arts, the Jule Collins Smith Museum of Fine Art, the Museum of Contemporary Art Detroit, and the Neuberger Museum of Art.

"This fair signals a new era for the ADAA—one rooted in our mission and responsive to the cultural needs of our time," said Kinsey Robb, Executive Director of the ADAA.

Additional details, including participating galleries, partnerships, and programming, will be announced in the coming months.

###

About ADAA

The ADAA (Art Dealers Association of America) is a nonprofit membership organization that supports the economic and cultural contributions of the nation's leading fine art galleries. The ADAA includes over 200 members from nearly 40 cities in the U.S., representing hundreds of established and emerging artists internationally. ADAA members have extensive expertise across primary and secondary markets and established reputations for upholding the best practices in the field. The ADAA serves as a resource and advocate, raising awareness of dealers' critical roles in the international art market and the cultural community. The ADAA is a leader on issues pertaining to connoisseurship, scholarship, ethical practice, and public policy.

About ADAA Foundation

The ADAA Foundation, an entity distinct from but connected to the ADAA, was established in 1970 to encourage and promote the appreciation of art and art history through its support of vital scholarship and curatorial research. Primarily funded by generous donations from ADAA member galleries, the Foundation has distributed grants to museums, archives, and arts organizations around the country to advance art historical research and exhibition development.

Learn more.

Press Contacts:

Cultural Counsel

adaa@culturalcounsel.com